“Night Fever” is the ultimate tribute to the Bee Gees, featuring the three Brothers Gibb, two backup singers, guitar, bass, drums, violins, and horns. It can also be performed with a 30 piece symphony orchestra.

With outstanding vocals and an all around amazing show, Night Fever performs over 25 of the Bee Gees hits including: Night Fever, Jive Talking, How Deep is Your Love, You Should Be Dancing, and Staying Alive.

For five decades – a time span more than any other group in pop history – the Bee Gees outwitted the international music scene with their incredible tenacity to remain current through all the eras of contemporary music. The close high harmonies of brothers Barry, Robin and Maurice Gibb made the Bee Gees one of the most impossible attractions to launch a salute to.....until “Night Fever”. The vocal matching of Night Fever’s John Acosta, Joe Varga and Mathew Whale create an eerie sense of seeing the brothers Gibb in concert. Night Fever is an all-Canadian cast from Ontario, backed by professional studio musicians, that captures the sound and look of the Bee Gees.

Night Fever has also been scored and arranged for a full symphony orchestra, performed with arranger and conductor Ross Daly. The three Bee Gees tribute artists can be hired as a trio performing with backing tracks only.

Joe Varga – “Robin Gibb”

At the Age of 10, Varga’s father started taking him to see live concerts, the first of which was The Bee Gees. He was instantly hooked. Varga has performed bass and lead vocals for songs ranging from the Bee Gees to Judas Priest. Joe landed a Major Record Deal with his rock band, VARGA. They have released two CD’s and toured extensively in Canada and the United States. Joe has been performing the part of Robin Gibb for over ten years.

John Acosta – “Barry Gibb”

Artist/Songwriter/Producer John Acosta is recognized as a prolific and songwriter and performer. He has been an EMI/Arista staff songwriter/producer. Pop duo SKY’s double platinum “Piece of Paradise” album included his hit single “All I Want”. Acosta has also written songs for popstars Sugar Jones, Velvet Empire, Canadian Idol , Carol Welsman, George Lamond, and Eduardo del Prado for Warner Bros France. He recently scored 2 song cuts plus production work with Japan’s Recording Pop Artist /Actor Yamashita Tomahisa’s debut, “Oh Baby” on AZU’s BMG Japans records.

Mathew Whale – “Maurice Gibb”

Mathew studied music at the Toronto Conservatory for five years. He has been a professional piano and keyboardist for over 20 years. Mathew has been performed in the musical productions to Billy Joel, Fleetwood Mac, Elton John and Pink Floyd. He does studio session work, rated as one of the best piano players in Canada. Matthew’s vocals amazingly reproduce the high harmonies of the Bee Gees.
